Synopsis

I comfortably thought I had been through the worst in life...until I accidentally locked myself in the highly secured file room...with my boss inside! This is not just any boss; her staff calls her "The Beast". It is a holiday weekend and everyone has gone to their families so there is no chance that anyone will pop in for us to be rescued. We are trapped. Fire and brimstone ensue when "The Beast" realizes what I have done, but with no way out, she eventually tries her hand at being civil. The fire dies, the tornado disappears, the ice melts and we are able to see each other for the first time. I start to wish that Monday will take just a little longer to arrive because once we are on the other side of the door, there are no guarantees. We start to share our stories. Megan is visibly shaken when she finds out I was abandoned as a baby but I made a catastrophic mistake of sharing the name of my birth mother and, with that revelation, my entire weekend goes up in flames! THIS BOOK CONTAINS STEAMY SEX SCENES. Adult readers ONLY.

Customer Reviews

The premise was interesting, but poorly executed. Our protagonist goes from being angry with her boss/lover to asking her to sit on her face within the same scene. The mood swings from anger and betrayal to falling in bed within the same page just makes this unbelievable and difficult to follow.
