It helps me a lot when I revise all the things I need for the test. However, it does not cover lots of original material for reading.

The books were purchased for my daughter. She found them to be very useful as she had 4 AP exams to prepare for this year.

The Princeton Review breaks down every time period studied in APUSH into easy to understand and insightful summaries, providing vocabulary for each section in the back that you can define and study with yourself. Combined with disciplined study habits and the use of flash cards and practice tests, The Princeton Review is sure to make the AP exam a cinch! (It did for me, anyway.)

The kid picked these up to study prior to the test. Said they worked well in preparation.

Excellent book for your HS student taking the AP US History exam

I got a 5 on the exam however, I used a portugese Linux manual to study, not this book. Although, I have to admit I like the picture of the Golden Gate Bridge on the front. What is US History anyway?

Awesome book! Just as described, helped so much!
