Sir Pete likes riding his loyal horse and climbing tall towers almost as much as he likes listening to Lady Callie play the harp. But one night a dragon takes Lady Callie away. Now itÃ¢â ¬â„¢s up to Sir Pete the Brave to save the day!Beginning readers will cheer for Pete the Cat, the grooviest knight in the land.Ã Â

Perfect for my 4-year old who has just started reading. The repetitive characters are great and she really likes them. The books are relatively short and the pages are one or two lines. Perfect for new readers with easy words and relatively few difficult words.

My 3-year old son loved this book. I downloaded the Kindle version and while it’s not as tactile and handy as a printed book, you can double tap the text on the Kindle and the words will pop up for easy reading. Of course, my son can’t read just yet, but that is helpful for him to connect the text with that is going on in the images on the page.Minor spoiler alert (if you don’t want to know the story, don’t read on, but if you’re a parent, I imagine you might want to. :) It’s an entertaining read and also teaches some lessons. Although the book starts out as a kind of ’damsel-in-distress’ and a "knight-in-shining-armor-to-the-rescue’ story, but as it progressed, it showed Lady Callie going in to save Sir Pete the Brave from the dragon. It’s also funny (at least for an adult), how the story showed them arguing about who gets to save who.Then the story moved over to the dragon about how it just wanted to sing, and Sir Pete and Lady Callie tells the dragon that he needs good friends to make good music. Then, the dragon carries Sir Pete and Lady Callie back to their friends. The dragon saves the day!The graphics are also nicely drawn, with good colors.

My 5 year old just loves Pete the Cat! All of his stories are cute and grab his attention! This one didnt let us down! For the price of the book and the nice fast shipping I will be buying more Pete the Cat books as they come out! I love stocking up on these and putting them away for birthdays, Christmas or just a good job reward. And my kids just love them!

You can’t go wrong with a Pete the Cat book. They’re all great.

My daughter loves all things Pete the Cat. these books get such a workout, they are read so much that they are usually falling apart. i have read this book so much (it was a christmas present to my daughter) that i can actually watch TV and read to her without looking at the book anymore.

Great story

We LOVE Pete the Cat. Crumpled books, not so much. Don’t buy paperback from . Lesson learned.
