Customer Reviews

Although this reads like a compilation of essays on What I did on Spring Break in Switzerland, there are some really off the wall suggestions that I intend to use on a July 2018 trip to Switzerland. The book seems to emphasize Zurich attractions and its long list of cool things to do there convinced me to spend two days in Zurich on the front end of our trip and a third on the way back home.

Without that list, I was thinking of taking the train to Luzerne immediately after landing at the Zurich airport. Thanks, Coolest. The book lacks an index, so you have to keep track of where cool places are. The blank inside cover helps. Websites are provided in many instances, but there are some suggestions that require you to consult Google.

Awesome refreshed guide! We have been arranging our first Switzerland trip and have utilized a few distinctive travel controls in the arranging procedure, yet this is the book we're getting with us our portable bags. Such a variety of useful proposals! I additionally adore the updates: new inn and hotel recommendations, an extended segment on the Geneva zone, and so forth. Truly extraordinary, can hardly wait to purchase his books for future outings!

I am very much excited to go in Switzerland because I read this book. I learned more about Switzerland, Places, What is the coolest things to do and more. You will also their culture and their beliefs. I like it.
