Customer Reviews

Praski's Guide to Warsaw Old Town is an excellent introduction to the area of Warsaw that was destroyed during the uprising in 1944 and rebuilt after World War II. The author takes you on a walking tour of the narrow streets, shows you the castles and monuments and gives an excellent description of a fancy restaurant meal at Bellini's. The story is full of historical facts, little insights into some of the famous residents and has many photographs of the area. If you are planning a visit to Warsaw, this should be your companion.
