I am so proud to announce the release of my fifth branded book, the cooking/entertaining release, Carolyn Westbrook: Celebrations at the Country House. Our historic southern home is once again the backdrop for my newest book, and this book is filled with not only generational recipes that have been passed down through the family, but breathtaking photography and inspired entertaining along the way. Revel in the farm to table life that has always been our way of life with the chickens, our rooster the Captain, the glorious gardens and wonderful parties and celebrations. Our annual autumn celebration is featured within and it has become quite an event over the years. Pumpkins are harvested in all shapes and colors and spill forth from the porch steps and from urns on tables. The Night Before Christmas meal is an anticipated as the presents under the trees, and a Southern Brunch is not to be missed. Everyone knows my love of vintage which is of course is incorporated into all of the tabletops and party decor. The book is full of inspiration and ideas to create an impromptu weeknight dinner or a celebration that will always be remembered. We call these food memories. This is for all of you that love good food, gathering with friends and family, Pinterest dreamers and party throwers...let's eat. xoxo Carolyn
