Customer Reviews

Jimmy Palmiotti, Justin Gray, and co. deliver two competent, slightly engaging, but still kind of underwhelming stories with strong art. The first one is grimmer, and the second one is more like an erotic thriller from the early 1990s as a t.v. short, but they are both enjoyable. The thing is after reading the second volume, they all kind of run together. There is a lot of sex in this, but its not particularly explicit--which is fine--but it also isn't particularly crucial to the story. Some of the dialogue is laughable, but for the medium, it's not awful. I suppose these are fun but kind of forgettable like the erotic thrillers of the past they are borrowing from.

Awesome stories that aren't afraid to explore adult themes I wish other authors took a page from these guys. It's a great read give it a shot!

Awesome

totally bad, boring and bad artwork

This is a fantastic book. While it was only available in print through the Kickstarter campaign, now you lucky slackers can get your eyes blessed with some digital Sex & Violence. Don't wait--do it. Both stories, PORNLAND, OREGON and GIRL IN A STORM, are meant for adult audiences. There is a solid serving of violence, nudity, and language, all in there for a reason and well-fitted to the gritty mood the stories mean to set. It's the right price. You won't be sorry. Do it.

I got the signed, prestige format version from Kickstarter. I love Palmiotti's work in Jonah Hex, so I thought I'd help out with his Kickstarter. Boy, was I glad. This book delivers on the title with two solid stories. The first story is a mob revenge story, the second story follows a lady cop around. Both stories are sprinkled with erotica and violence, but the plot is the star. not the T&A or the B&G. Pick up the Kindle version, it's worth the read.

Both stories are intense, well drawn and well executed reads for different reasons. I've come to expect nothing less from Jimmy Palmiotti and Justin Gray as writers.

If you're a fan of Jimmy Palmiotti and Justin Gray's work, then this is a definite buy. It contains two separate stories, and is intended for mature audiences. The stories are different, but compliment, balance each other out. They are gritty, sexy, and very enjoyable to read. There is no excuse not to pick this up. I'm glad I supported this project, as the creative freedom, really showed.
