It is headquartered in Irvine, CA. Cheryl Kimball lives in Middleton, NH.

Very basic, some of the recommendations are no-brainer and repetitive. Good for a very inexperienced person just starting out. For the experienced person, it's not super helpful.

Good read. I'm an event planner and purchased this for kicks and giggles. Covers all of the main topics and much of what is covered in college courses worth reading if you're interested in this field

Very useful book

It's an awesome book and it definitely helps you prepare for what the expenses will be to get started. I will recommend it!

Very helpful, great information and resources

This was a great way for me to understand the basics and necessities that I would need to start a event planning business great book with important and helpful tools to get started
