Motels Of Lincoln Avenue (View-Master Reel)

Synopsis

In the 1950s, Lincoln Avenue was the gateway to Chicago from the north. At the edge of the city, new auto 'mo-tels' with the most modern amenities catered to auto travelers. Since then the little motels have fallen on hard times and many have been torn down. Read the story of Lincoln Avenue and take a tour in 3-dimensional photos to see what is left of this classic stretch of roadside Americana.

Customer Reviews

Interesting subject matter. Great pix. Only one reel though. Wasn't clear in the description.

Expensive for what you get.

These 3D images of motels along Chicago's Lincoln Avenue will amaze you. The city of Chicago has been slowly tearing down the motels along this stretch so these pictures give you a virtual tour of places that it will most likely not be possible to visit in real-life for much longer. The accompanying booklet gives an overview of all the motels (even ones not appearing on the 3D reel) along this stretch of road along with a history of the rise and decline of this commercial district. The 3D effect is quite dazzling in these pics. Highly recommended!!!!
