Color By Numbers: Birds And Butterflies

Synopsis

Birds and butterflies are the perfect subject matter for color-by-number artworks: detailed, colorful and varied. This delightful coloring book explores these creatures in their natural habitats in more than 60 beautiful images. Many of the images are intricate and will take time and patience to complete, but there is also a number of less complex compositions that offer enjoyment for the budding artist. No matter which you choose, all the images are designed to produce beautiful results.

Ok

Just what I expected, really enjoy coloring in it.

A gift for a friend & she loved it

I love this coloring book. Would've given 5 stars if pages were perforated.

We love it!!!!!! Beautiful pictures!!

AAA+

This is similar to the other books in the Chartwell Books Series of color by number books, lots of variety. There are 28 colors in the key and they are named. It is the same exact key as in the Enchanted World & Animal Kingdom books. There are no perforations but the pages come out easily with a cutting tool of any kind. I like this series because of the variety and the pictures always look nice when completed. Also a great value, you get 60 plus pages to do.
