President Of The Whole Fifth Grade (President Series)

Synopsis

Start counting your votes . . . and your friends. When Brianna Justice's hero, the famous celebrity chef Miss Delicious, speaks at her school and traces her own success back to being president of her fifth grade class, Brianna determines she must do the same. She just knows that becoming president of her class is the first step toward her own cupcake-baking empire! But when new student Jasmine Moon announces she is also running for president, Brianna learns that she may have more competition than she expected. Will Brianna be able to stick to her plan of working with her friends to win the election fairly? Or will she jump at the opportunity to steal votes from Jasmine by revealing an embarrassing secret? This hilarious, heartfelt novel will appeal to any reader with big dreams, and the determination to achieve them.

Gr 4-5â "Brianna Justice is good at setting goals and knows what she wants for her future: to become fifth-grade class president and eventually be rich and famous with her own cupcake business and cooking show. She's sure the former is the path to the latter and has been planning her election strategy all summer. When unscrupulous newcomer Jasmine runs against her, the competition takes an ugly turn with both girls trying underhand tricks in order to win. The story begins to resemble a Mean Girls of elementary school as Brianna makes one bad decision after another, turning into a rather unlikable character and nearly losing her friends in the process. She learns from her mistakes, however, and is able to turn both her friendships and the election around. The story will resonate with preteens navigating the ups, downs, and drama that come with the territory of many young girls' friendships.â Kelly Roth, Bartow County Public Library, Cartersville, GA. The author of The Kayla Chronicles (2008) returns with this sweet confection for middle-graders. Brianna Justice plans to be a millionaire when she grows up, just like her hero, celebrity chef Miss Delicious. When Miss Delicious credits her rise to the top to the experience she gained as fifth-grade president, Brianna knows what she must do. With the support of her best friends, Brianna strategizes her worldwide domination, starting with a successful run for president of her own fifth-grade class. But unexpected and underhanded competition from new girl Jasmine Moon threatens not only to ruin Brianna's ambitions but to knock Brianna's moral compass out of whack as she loses sight of herself and her purpose in a win-at-all-costs race. Although Jasmine's villainy seems over the top and Brianna's peeps turn on her unconvincingly, Brianna's struggle to run a clean campaign is believable and entertaining. Cupcake recipes and a fair amount of U.S. history are worked into the book, which will be a hit with readers who like Wendy Mass and Lauren Myracle. Grades 3-6. --Kara Dean --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

My daughter loved this book! She wants to read the other books as well.

A master piece. I absolutely loved this book and will be recommending it to everyone I know. It kept my attention. I didn't want to put it down.If the second series "President of The Whole 6th Grade" is anything like this one...I know I will be pleased. Thank you my niece loved this book...especially since she is going to the 5th grade this year.

One of my favorite books of all time!!!!!! It shows a lot of friendship it helps kids see that you can be who you are and not change for anything!!!! Bit everyone even for your friends!

Purchased as a gift for my granddaughter who happens to be in the fifth grade. She's an avid reader who enjoys mysteries, and although this book wasn't a mystery, she enjoyed it.

Once this book arrived, I thought it may be too advanced for my 7yr old granddaughter who's in the 1st grade but she is already on chapter 3. Clearly she loves to read and is up for the challenge!!!

I chose this rating because I personally admire this book with great passion. I like how she has struggles and how she fights through them even when they didn't go her way.

My grand daughter is a junior in high school and she still loves this book. I decided to pass on the reading to four more fifth graders. They will enjoy the reading
