Gangaji

Gangaji

Papaji liked to say, you can't get it from a book. Eli made a written record of these satsangs, anyway. I love Gangaji and any information about her teacher is helpful. Gangaji is gentle while Papaji could be quite forceful. Books can't give you the realization but they can provide support when you're ready. Papaji's and now Gangaji's message to "stop" is revolutionary. Stop any plan, practice, strategy, etc. that you think will get you what you want and in that stillness, realize you already are it. From his death bed, Papaji invited all of us, where's Buddha? Om Shanti, Shanti!

Bottom line don't miss this Amazing book, definitely enjoyed it as a meditative read. Every time I read it another layer of understanding opens... Thank you Poonjaji!

Very deep, but easier to understand than many gurus. Can be life-changing. Better to read only a little at a time.

So much has been said about Papaji and its all true, this clear, inspiring and useful guidance. I read one little dialog a day to get my head straight, the "view" established, and clarity to my life.

This is a wonderfully insightful book. Papaji is truly one of the great masters and this recording of his dialogues with seekers is a highly valuable work.

Loved the book. A balm for the heart. Incredible book. I wish never end. Thanks for this book .loved it

If ever there is a gentle and humorous teacher of powerful satsang he is the One. Papaji has this wonderful ability to engage his students in such a disarming manner allowing surrender immediately. There is nothing to say nothing to do but sit here in silence. That is his invitation. That you can get this now. Very encouraging indeed but as always the rest is up to you.
