Exciting new stories in this popular series make fun reading for girls ages 11 to 14. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Beverly Lewis was born in the heart of Pennsylvania Dutch country. She fondly recalls her growing-up years, and due to a keen interest in her mother's Plain family heritage, many of Beverly's books are set in Lancaster County. A former schoolteacher, Bev is a member of The National League of American Pen Women—the Pikes Peak Branch—and the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators. Her bestselling books are among the C.S. Lewis Noteworthy List Books, and both The Postcard and Annika's Secret Wish have received Silver Angel Awards. Bev and her husband have three children and make their home in Colorado.

I read this book and it is really good! You don't expect Holly's mother to be pregnant with their already packed house and huge family, but she is! In this book, Holly's middle name is exposed. There are much more secrets in this story than you would imagine, and more on the custody aggrement between her parents.
