I was in France for 3 years. And I bought it in US, because the price in US is much cheaper than in France. Photos in this book covers most of the well known cities in France, such as Chartres, Reims, Avignon, Arles, Lyon, Nantes. But don't have photos of some of the best touristic sites, the chateau of Fontainebleau, not many photos for Britany/Bretagne(I was there for 1 year and a half, so a bit disappointed), Provins, Montmatres in Paris, etc. Personnaly, I think there are too many photos of the sea, which are very France. I would prefer to have more photos of towns and villages, etc. All in all, I still think this is one of the best photo album of France taken from above (anyway, there are not a lot of choices).

I bought this book on a whim for my brother. He went to France with his new French-American wife and is now obsessed with it! Even though they took hundreds of pictures, none of them were "from the air". Before giving it to him for Christmas, I looked at every page. This book made me wish I could afford to travel the world! For now, I will settle for buying myself many "coffee table" books like this one!
