After a scary bedtime story, Sister Bear is too frightened of the dark to shut her eyes. "Sound psychological advice and a night light help Sister conquer her fears. Children will empathize with Sister Bear in this well-written story."--"School Library Journal.

Stan and Jan Berenstain were already successful cartoonists for magazines and adult humor books when they began writing children's books. The first story starring the bear family, The Big Honey Hunt, appeared in 1962. Since then, more than 360 Berenstain Bears books have been published, and more than 300 million copies have been sold. What began as an idea sparked by their young sons' love of reading has become one of the best-selling children's book series ever.

The entire Bernstein series were great for my toddler. Having a bunch of books with the same characters help draw him in and keep him entertained more than others.

My five year old son LOVES this book and reads along with me!!! Definitely recommend this book!

WHO doesn't love the Berenstain Bears!? These are household favorites! And there seems to be one for almost every occasion. I get them for my kids as the situation calls for it. First day of school, Too much TV, Chores, New Baby, easing..... you name it. My 4 yr old is going to be getting a few of these for Christmas this year!! Cause Santa knows what's up!! ;)

My 3 year old grandsons love the Berenstain Bears books and this is no exception.

kids liked it

One of my wife's favourite books as a child. We bought these for our potential future children, but are loving the read down memory lane. Arrived quickly and in excellent condition.

Great for getting your lil cubs over their fear of the dark- or really setting it deep in their consciousness. Either way, passes the time

My two year old is totally into this book right now. She's in a fear of the dark phase and this book helps her, I think. She has asked for more Berenstain Bears books!
