Carol is the Education Director for Clover Needlecraft, one of the key players in the crafts field. She is an accomplished author, designer, sewist, quilter, knitter, pattern maker, and crafter. Carol is also a disciplined and thoughtful teacher whose encouragement and patience regularly inspires student creativity and success. Carol is recognized for the strength of her "colorwash" designs and has produced quilt patterns under the Heatherworks label.

This book is great for the beginner as well as those experienced in beadwork. The description of the techniques are clear. The pictures used to describe the techniques are clear and a great support for the explanations provided for each technique. It serves well for anyone that does well with written instructions as well as anyone that is visual and does better with pictures demonstrating the technique.

This book helped me get started weaving. I enjoyed some of the patterns.

Nice book, had some good patterns and info.
