Customer Reviews

"The Great Hispanic Heritage series provides biographies of selected Hispanic leaders and major figures, making for strong biographical choices for youngsters...All are especially recommended picks for biographical studies."

Adam Woog has written more than 60 books for adults, young adults, and children. He has special interests in biography and music. Woog lives in his hometown of Seattle, Washington.

This is undoubtedly a well written and exciting work on one of the most extraordinary actress, singer, model and just highly attractive woman. The author is sincere and objective in conveying material, he is illustrating Jennifer's influence not only on general culture, but also on Latino community. Every book has its own "soul", this one shapes popular perceptions of her life. You can easily find out that she is more than a successful performer among many others, rather her art works are a significant source of inspiration for millions of minds around the world. Last but not least, Jennifer's effect is definitely something worth rigorous consideration.
