Synopsis

Stefan Niedzialkowski immersed himself in the world of mime 30 years ago when he began studying in his native Poland with Henryk Tomaszewski's Wroclaw Mime Theatre. ## Customer Reviews

"In my 30 years of performing professionally...I have not spoken a single word as an actor, nor have I had the urge to do so." So writes international mime theater artist and teacher Stefan Niedzialkowski in this inside look at the mental and physical ingredients of an art form that communicates beyond the word. Actors and acting schools find the book to be an outstanding educational tool. Marcel Marceau writes in the foreword: "His words about mime...will be of interest to anyone who cares about mime, and they will be very important to young students. BEYOND THE WORD will guide those who are interested in...[the] creative process, as artist or as teacher.

After experiencing a 1 week intensive seminar with Stefan at Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio. This book is a fantastic guide to his views and technique of the art-form. I recommend this book for the more knowlegable individuals of the art of mime. And also the spectator who has an interest in understanding this wonderful form of art. Stefan is the best of the best, and his views and concepts are thoroughly respected by Mr. Marceau. If your interests are in the art of mime then this book is definitely a must, and I don't mean for your bookshelf this is a "must read" for the mime-lover! ...

Beyond the Word: The World of Mime is well put and well realized by Stefan Niedzialkowski. I wish that I knew the human body this well. It is a delight. Thanks Stefan.

This is the book for the mime who wishes to understand and perfect his or her technique. It is also the book for the theatergoer who wants to understand mime as an art. Heavy on theory and tradition, it explores many aspects of the art using numerous examples of the physical techniques. The author, who has 40 years of stage and teaching experience, obviously loves and understands mime and wishes to communicate his knowledge to the reader.
