Synopsis

A treasure from the past, this book was originally published at the turn of the last century, during the heyday of cake-making, designed to be the standard work on cakes and confectionery. There are recipes for all kinds of traditional Victorian cakes, biscuits and cookies, petits fours, shortbreads, pound and slab cakes, gingerbreads, marzipan and nougat, as well as a multitude of fillings, icings and frostings. Nicholas Lodge, the internationally celebrated sugarcraft artist, is well qualified to introduce this classic Victorian book. Gaining top prizes at the National Bakery School in London, he worked at two top sugarcraft schools before setting up his own company. He has written many books on the subject of sugarcraft.

A fabulous reprint of a turn of the century cake bakers guide with recipes and 48 charming illustrations in color, as well as reproductions of Victorian advertisements for baking equipment. It is a charming book and will delight cake bakers, decorators and historians who appreciate original documents. The book is 240 pages 9X11. The author is T. Percy Lewis, chairman of Confectionery Judges, London Exhibition 1903 which probably says it all.

Very informative, with lots of recipes and beautiful pictures of cakes and pastries. Step by step pictures and instructions on how to pipe royal icing flowers. I absolutely love it. It's the style of decorating that should be preserved.

My favorite cake instructor!

I really thought that this book wasn't all that great. I was expecting something more in this issue, more coloured photos etc
