James Archambeault has been an independent photographer for over twenty-five years. He has published five books: ""James Archambeault's"" ""Historic Kentucky, Kentucky, Kentucky II, Kentucky III,"" and ""The Gift of Pleasant Hill,"" His work has appeared in several national publications, including ""Architectural Digest,"" ""National Geographic,"" and the ""Smithsonian Guides to Natural America,""

This was a gift for my daughter, so we could share our new home with her. She loved it! I will get one of my own.

I absolutely love this. The photographs were done when digital images were not even thought of. So right off a person can see the work that went into everyone! Thank you for a great Kentucky treasure!

Great book & great service.

I like horses and have enjoyed the photography!

Great book, just as described, took longer to arrive than it was should have. While living in Japan it is great to see my wonderful Kentucky in such beautiful pictures, only makes me homesick.
