PreS-K "In the woods there are many friends. Some are large, and others are small. Some fly high and others low. Some are fast, while others move slowly. The world is full of opposites, but they are able to come together in a way that is just right. In a beautifully vibrant forest, Wilson and Chapman's animals come to life with love and charm. A bear, a badger, an owl, a mouse, and many more woodland creatures demonstrate the concept of opposites. With pleasant expressions and a cheerful tone, the characters are adorable and endearing. The text is simple and easy to grasp for even the youngest viewers. A combination of lush green illustrations and crisp white backgrounds creates the perfect contrast with the turn of every page. The talented author/illustrator duo have produced another outstanding picture book for the preschool audience. VERDICT Fans of Bear Snores On will want to add this fun and effortless tool for teaching opposites to their storytime repertoires.â "Amy Shepherd, St. Anne's Episcopal School, Middleton, DE

"Fluent and friendly, this frolic will encourage preschoolers and emergent readers to recite and chant along with each reread." (School Library Journal October 2016)"A fine addition for fans of Wilson and Chapmanâ 's Bear series" (Publisher's Weekly October 3, 2016)

Love this bear series - it started with Bear Snores On, which my child received as a gift when he turned one. He fell in love with Bear and we have all the rest of the books. He asks for them to be read almost daily and memorizes the books so we have fun "reading" them together. This book, as well as the rest of the series, has the cutest images and rhymes. What works best is the repetitive phrases, which help my toddler learn the concepts.

Thank you, we love all the books of particularly this author and illustrations are magical! Our daughter can not stop reading those books!Everything was shipped very well and safe.Natalia.

So happy the author made another bear book, we have all of them :) they are awesome books, cute, colorful, and educational !

We love the bear books, and this is another fun one. We love the rhythmic rhymes. Perfect for bedtime!

Love the original series and love this one just as much

Sweet as other bear books.

Big Bear, Small Mouse, explores the wonderful world of opposites. Bear is very big and mouse is very small, but they also have many friends in the forest. Badger is fast, Hare is slow, some friends are quiet and some are loud; but what do they all do when a large storm comes? Read the story and find out what happens when this loud crowd of opposites comes together. With adorable illustrations and an easy to read storyline, this adorable story teaches little ones that friends come in all shapes and sizes, but it's the size of their heart that matters most. Excerpt from my weekly newspaper column: For the Love of Books-Dixon's Independent Voice.

Fun introduction to opposites for the preschool set. Good for children ages 2-3. There's some rhyming and comparing fast and slow animals, quiet and loud, warm and cold, and high and low. I expected the book to be longer.
